November 3rd
Guest Speaker: John Croyle
10:45 a.m.

John was a former defensive end for the University of Alabama's 1973 National Championship football team, led by the legendary Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. At 19, John felt he had been given a gift to work with young people. His dream was to have the best children's home in America. On the advice of Coach Bryant, John declined opportunities for the NFL to pursue that dream instead. Since 1974, more than 1,800 children have called Big Oak Ranch home.

Dear Second Baptist:
Thank you so much for the use of the Family Life Center for our Spaghetti Dinner Fundraiser on September 27 and for all who came out to enjoy a dinner. This continues to be a blessing to us and the children that are able to attend camp from the money raised.
Camp New Dawn
Jennie Chandler

We are looking for someone to watch the nursery on Wednesday nights. This is a paid position. If you enjoy working with kids and think you might be interested, please see the personnel committee.
